Re: LETTER OF SUPPORT FOR JOSEPH WASKE AND REX WU (ECF 20-cv-05083 and 20-cv-05823)

Dear Honorable Judge Abrams:

Like Joseph Waske and Rex Wu, I am a preferred shareholder of the LBHI Capital Trusts III, IV, V and VI. I am respectfully submitting my Letter of Support for both Joseph Waske and Rex Wu. Joseph Waske stated correctly that the subordinated guarantee is valid and enforceable in bankruptcy court and outside of bankruptcy as per Bankruptcy Code 510(a). The Honorable Judge Chapman and the Plan Administrator failed to comply with Bankruptcy Code 510(a) during the course of the Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc's Chapter 11 bankruptcy and are now attempting to discard Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc's responsibilities under Bankruptcy Code 510(a) in regards to the Subordinated Guarantee.

The Plan Administrator and the Honorable Bankruptcy court is aware of LBHI's subordinated guarantee issues in the Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc Bankruptcy case from prior rulings dating back to the Honorable Judge Peck. It can easily be determined that the Plan Administrator is not forthcoming with these issues and have no desires to correct the subordinated guarantee issues on their own accord even though they have been aware of them for years. To date, there are no attempts to correct the subordinated guarantee issues that plagues the Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. Bankruptcy without lawsuits. The entire bankruptcy since the Honorable Judge Peck ruling on the subordinated guarantees is compromised because LBHI continues to intentionally proceed with the bankruptcy without correcting the error, which in this case may be intentional via the actions of LBHI and the Plan Administrator.

I am exercising my constitutional rights and with the rights under the relevant prospectuses' subordinated guarantees that gives me the standing under Bankruptcy Code 510(a) to file this Letter of Support.

I respectfully request the Honorable Court to grant Joseph Waske and Rex Wu's Appeals in their entirety. Thank you for your time.

Respectfully Submitted,
